

COOK & CURRY

Share some love through food

About us...

I'm Robyn, the creator of Cook&Curry. Here's a little story of how we got here.

Cook&Curry began long before me, growing from generations of family cooking across the Caribbean and the UK.

I'm so proud of my heritage and our amazing culture, and with Cook&Curry, I want to bring people into that warm space and share the food we grew up with.

We create feasts full of bold flavours, with fully gluten-free menus made with love and care.

From intimate celebrations to evening catering for up to 150 guests, our food is all about sharing joy, filling bellies, and making your special day unforgettable.

We cater for weddings across Yorkshire and the Midlands, and would love to make Cook&Curry part of your celebration.

Testimonials

Claire

Cook and curry catered for my 60th Birthday party, for just 30 people .

To say the food was amazing is an understatement, delicious, spicy melt in the mouth meat curry. Mac and cheese was my favourite and all served by the delightful Robyn.

Not a sad curled up sausage roll in site !
Don't hesitate to book, you will not be disappointed...
promise !
